I am so Grateful for...

"God gave you a gift of 86,400 seconds today. Have you used one to say "thank you?"

William A. Ward

In one of our weekly newsletters "The Secret Spotlight – Gratitude", we asked our readers to send in their accounts of what they are grateful for in their lives.

We asked them to reply to our email with the heading "I am so grateful for..." and fill in the rest.

Well...the response was overwhelming with hundreds of people writing back to let others know what they are grateful for in their lives.

Gratitude for what we have in our life is a matter of such fundamental and crucial importance because it brings us into alignment with what the Universe wants for us, as expressed in this famous quote by Wallace Wattles:-

"The more gratefully we fix our minds on the Supreme when good things come to us, the more good things we will receive, and the more rapidly they will come; and the reason simply is that the mental attitude of gratitude draws the mind into closer touch with the source from which the blessings come"

Wallace D Wattles

Have a look at what our readers are grateful for, it will warm your heart.

Think about all of the things that YOU are grateful for. Maybe even create your own Gratitude Journal

You will be amazed at how your life will change from focusing on the things that you don't have, to focusing on the things that you do have and that you are truly grateful for.

For more information about Gratitude, go to Gratitude and the Law of Attraction. If you would like to join our free newsletter, go to The Secret Spotlight.

We are forever grateful to you for sharing...

We would like to take this opportunity to thank all of our readers who contributed to our "I am so grateful for..." newsletter.

We are grateful for your contribution, it will inspire many others to stop and think about the things that they are grateful for in life.

Gwendoline is Grateful for:

I'm grateful for so many things – I thank my parents everyday (they have both passed on) for giving me life, I spent the best part of the 90's with a degenerative muscle disease on my right side, got right to the point of not being able to walk, had no nerve supply to the muscles whatsoever and then one day I was given a treatment at a main Melbourne hospital as a trial, over 2 consecutive weeks & 2 treatments, I got out of bed in 8 days & I had signs of strength returning to my leg, at this time in my life, I had a very successful business with a beach front home, fancy prestige cars in the driveway, expensive diamond rings, but at that moment, materials were no longer important, all the money couldn't find the answer or cure this strange thing happening in my body, I experienced that morning what true, raw happiness was & I have been so grateful ever since, I still have weakness in the leg, but I receive the treatment that binds the anti body every month & although I can't run or dance anymore, I can walk, I am so incredibly grateful for something we all take for granted every day. 2 years after finding this treatment for my leg, my life dramatically changed from prestige to destitution, just by making the wrong decision in business, I remember standing in an auction room with all my marble & crystal around me & watching people bid a % of what it was worth, then they came & got my cars, then my home. For a couple of years after this, I ran around in circles trying to find myself again, not ever knowing if I would – but I always knew my worth, I had a purpose on this planet & I was so determined to live the life I truly knew I deserved. I commenced a new business one year ago & it has grown so fast, I don't reflect back too often, but I think sometimes it is good to remind yourself where you were then & where you are now. I am no where near being at my destination but at least I am on the way with a map that is working (the Secret played a big part in my success last year) I am so incredibly humble & so grateful for digging down deep & being able to find what strength I had left to get back on the road. I have shared the above, but in no way am I playing the sympathy fiddle, I am actually grateful for the major losses, they taught me a very strong lesson in – 'what not to do in life' – if someone had of tried to warn me, I wouldn't have listened.

And finally, I am so, so, so grateful for the 'Secret' – it changed my life & will continue to do so. I am so addicted now to feeling that good, vibrant energy running through my body, that it just can't be any other way for me. Thank you

Sylvia is Grateful for:

I am so very grateful for the email I received from The Secret regarding “3ways to stay motivated” this morning... ☒ I was struggling yesterday with how am I going to motivate myself to get through another term of classes...and wham... as always the secret is working for us...with these wonderful gentle reminders!! I am working a fulltime and part-time job – single mother – two teenagers – and attending university to achieve my MBA – which means going to night classes twice a week...It was a very busy Christmas season and I am tired...HOWEVER...despite all the external issues that seem as barriers.....finances....time....I am extremely thankful to have these opportunities...to always be given the strength, courage and determination to make it through ANY life situation. I am thankful for the guidance and motivation that is always shown to me, I am thankful for my daily 11:11am reminders to write in my journal for all the wonderful events and life experiences I am thankful to have in my and others lives.

Life is abundant; what amazes me and brings such an overwhelming emotion to me that I will forever be grateful...was a day two years ago...I was waiting for someone to pick me up – she was late – and I spent the time waiting...watching Oprah...It was Rhonda Byrne and friends...talking about this amazing new book...I was mesmerized watching and listening.....and inspired to purchase the CD’s...that was the day my LIFE changed forever...for that special day – I am forever grateful...see I have goosebumps on my arms just talking about this right now...LOL!!! How wonderful life is...two years ago...I would have been the first person to discard that emotion....to say “life sucks”....I was in a very dysfunctional and abusive relationship and despite life situations at that time...now I know differently...the Secret and other very wonderfully inspiring authors have opened my heart, opened my mind and opened my awareness to this amazing universe.....I am thankful for my freedom to choose a better life!!

Simply put...but such a strong word....Thank you,

Lyn is Grateful for:

I am alive and so GRATEFUL and HAPPY! I have been very grateful and happy for almost a year now after seeing the movie "The Secret". I laid around on the couch weak and depressed after a long battle with cancer treatment and a couple years of reconstruction surgeries dating back to Christmas 2004. Funny thing about cancer is the Doctors will never say when you are cured and screening test can become a mood determination and a way of life. I learned that depression after cancer survival seems to be the next step of recovery and each member of this new cancer club has to decide for themselves if and when they can believe in living again. I know there are worse things in life to endure than cancer treatment but this was my huge stumbling block and how to believe I can live and why I get another chance when so many others lost their lives. Why have I been frozen in fear for four years and suddenly after watching a movie called "The Secret" a light came on and I got the courage to believe. I have no answers and no longer a desire to ponder the questions because I just keep taking little steps into life with a new perspective of happiness everyday. Love Peace and Harmony for all. I strive everyday to let go of judgements and I find so many things to smile about and be grateful in each moment. I woke this morning to the phone ringing and the sound of a new friends voice. Its a beautiful new day and I am here to live and hopefully cause some others to smile today.

"We often take for granted the very things that most deserve our gratitude" ~Cynthia Ozick

... being able to still have the chance to touch the lives of others with inspiration

... to have all of my faculties still working i.e. to be able to breathe, walk, talk, see, hear, feel, smell, touch...

... to be able to inspire others through my writing

... to have the gift of being a chef, so I can feed others

... to have all of my immediate family still alive and that we are close to one another

... to have discovered a great business opportunity that allows me to help and inspire others, so that their lives can change for the better, too!

... for the chance to wake up again and do more, learn more and love more.

... and most of all... to be able to help, love and encourage everyone I meet to... LIVE THE LIFE YOU LOVE!

... and last but not least, to be able to share this right now with YOU! Thanks for all you do!

Michelle is Grateful for:

I am grateful for all the wonderful things in my life; both big and small. Mostly, I am grateful for 3 things: my desire to learn more about LOA, NLP, self improvement etc, my wonderful 3 year old son and my best friend: my mother. These three things are the most important constant in my life and give me the most happiness therefore I am the MOST grateful for them. I am grateful for my beautiful friend, Glenda Stirling, whom I met while selling a set of bathroom taps on Ebay. She introduced me to The Secret, then Down the Rabbit Hole, to Eckhart Tolle, to Christopher Howard companies and she is just the most amazingly blessed person I know. I am 100% grateful that she is in my life (2500 kms away). I bless her every single day, and give my eternal gratitude e³ love. I also tell everyone I know just how much she means to me and the wonderful path she has helped guide me towards.

Thank you for this opportunity to express my gratitude for all I am grateful for. I know I have waffled on a bit but I mean every single word a million times over!

Thank you!

Iulian is Grateful for:

Being granted to the huge, immense, infinite opportunity to be able to find out about the Secret. I am so grateful to those who opened my eyes, my heart and my mind... And now, I can see...

Donna is Grateful for:

I am so grateful to all of you who are sharing this wonderful gift of the law of attraction with others. Thank-you for teaching me how to live a magnificent life by following my bliss and being hilariously happy each day. My life is constantly falling into place just the way I intend it and has brought only great health, wisdom and wealth (including a win of $50,000.00).

Wishing you Gods continuous blessings for the new year.

Cindy is Grateful for:

The solid restful sleep I had last night and waking up this morning to enjoy this glorious day and my wonderful life.

For waking up next to my loving husband and my gorgeous dog.

For waking up in my warm, cosy comfortable bed, in my beautiful safe & secure home, living in this safe & quiet neighbourhood, living in this free & peaceful country and living in this time or era of such opportunities, abundances, peace, freedom and medical advancement.

For waking up having full use of my hands & feet, arms and legs, my sight, hearing and all my senses. For having normal skin & normal hair.

For all of my gifts and abilities, my good health & fitness. For having energy, for feeling good and for all the things I have and possess that make it so easy for me to get out of bed every day and do the things I want & need to do.

For this beautiful day. For the clear blue sky, the clouds that offer protection from the hot sun and produce rain for the survival of our planet. For the colours and beauty of nature.

For the clean, fresh, oxygenating, healing, energizing air, and for the radiant heat and light of the sun and for how wonderful it makes me feel.

For all the freedoms I have in my life. Freedom as a woman, a wife, & a citizen. Freedom of choice, freedom of speech, freedom to think for myself. For my financial freedom, wealth and abundance and for the wonderful life, as well as the safety & security, that it affords me to live.

For finding my life's purpose and combining that with my love of health & fitness to help others live happy, healthy, long, fulfilling, independent lives.

Just being alive.

I am so grateful I am able to learn new ways to be!

Sally is Grateful for:

Thank you for the opportunity to express my gratitude in this way. My sons totally inspire me - they are both awesome at and dedicated to their sports.

Gareth plays rugby 12 months of the year. 15-a-side in winter and "Sevens" in the summer. Hamish competes in "Drifting" - a new Motorsport in New Zealand - he has a "daily driver" car that probably can't go over 100kph and does all his high adrenaline antics on the track.

As parents we were a generation that encouraged our children onto skateboards at an early age - great adrenaline rush! Then we built skateboard parks - great! Then we wonder why they want to go fast in "lowered" cars - obvious really. I am truly grateful that I can follow Hamish with his sport (I video all his track time and show it to him in between his rounds) and let him live his dream even though it is a dangerous sport. It is so great to see them both living out their passions in their lives. I am very grateful for seeing their lives from this perspective.

I was able to take them both to Anthony Robbins' "Unleash the Power Within" in Sydney in 2004. I am sure this has a huge impact on them both - opportunities continually seized! Gratitude plus!

Angela is Grateful for:

I am so grateful for the love I receive every single day. Life is amazing, each day is a new and wondrous adventure. Just when I think I can't love someone or appreciate someone even more, I amaze myself. I am grateful to be alive! I have found that the key to world peace is simply this-A SMILE. Why? Have you ever noticed that when you smile at someone, even if they look sad or appear to be having a bad day, they smile back? My son and I put this to the test and smiled at 55 people in a row on a walk early in the morning in the park and every single person smiled back. Years later, this still works. I am thankful for every one of those smiles back. WOW! My dog recently died and in my grief, I couldn't think of anything to be thankful for and was feeling sorry for myself and lost. After a whole day and night of tears, I finally realized what I was thankful for and that was that my dog was in a better place even though that better place wasn't with me anymore. You see, my dog needed a new body because his body just didn't work anymore. To this day it is still a mystery as to why his legs stopped working. My dog was brave and Valiant even in his mysterious illness. He taught me patience, courage, deeper love than I have ever experienced, and so much more. I am thankful for every day I had with that amazing soul. Be thankful for each day with a loved one, tell that loved one that you love them every single day, and SHOW THEM. Love is an extraordinary thing and a magical thing, and it is important to be thankful for the ability to receive and give love-not everyone can receive and give love. I have so much to be thankful for, my heart overflows with joy just thinking about all I am thankful for!

Craig is Grateful for:

My name is Craig and I am so grateful for my beautiful wife Michelle and our 5 great children, our house that we live in, the car we drive, our health, the great friendships we have made over the years, our businesses we own and run, for getting this email, for being able to do our mission work in Vanuatu. for our families who support us and love us with no strings attached.

I am so grateful that I want to get out of my bed in the mornings, for too many year's all I wanted was to have a reason to get out of bed. I now have a thousand reasons and I am so grateful that I am alive and bring love to myself & others.

“Gratitude is the memory of the heart.” ~ Jean Baptiste Massieu, translated from French

Valerie is Grateful for:

I am so grateful for my Mother. She studied at the Concept Therapy Institute in the 70's and taught us children to be grateful for everything you have, no matter how small.

She taught us the Laws of the Universe despite criticism from well-meaning friends and family.

She emphasized how important it was to count your blessings, even when it can be a challenge because there is always something to be thankful for. Days when you are feeling lack, be grateful that you have a roof over your head, many don't. Appreciate the sun shining on your face, the seasons, flowers, water, etc.

Be grateful for something as simple as a relaxing, warm shower, many don't have that luxury.

She explained to us that if you are coming from a place of Gratitude, you will attract more of that.

She taught us to look for the silver lining in every cloud, assuring us that it was always there. That everything happens for our highest good, which made us patient.

I lost my Mother back in 2004, she was taken away at the age of 66 years, but she lived every day like there was no tomorrow with hope, love, spirituality, enthusiasm and gratitude.

I am so very grateful to have been the daughter of this truly inspiring human being, often I cannot believe my luck to have been raised by such a beautiful soul.

She also had a huge impact on the lives of my two daughters who rely on me to pass along the lessons that Granny never got to finish teaching them.

I am grateful for my 5 brothers, such beautiful people who truly understand when I dig deep to find the good in everything, they got all of her lessons too!

I am so grateful to God and the Universe for the unconditional love, inspiration and guidance of mentors and real friends throughout my life to date, without this loving help I may have missed the signposts on my Path and not gained the experience that has formed me into the person I am today, loving and peaceful. Thank you.

Mo is Grateful for:

I am truly grateful for my son. Since watching the secret everyday we have a moment that makes us laugh our sides into pain . I'm grateful to be able to speak with him and understand on his level what he's trying to convey to me. I'm grateful to be able to not only change my mood in a blink of an eye but also his. Teenagers are not easy these days but with the power that I have discovered with-in I can beyond doubt say it's one the greatest blessing I have ever received.

Happily Moving Forward.

Melissa is Grateful for:

I am so grateful for my beautiful and loving family. I have had some obstacles over the last few months and at many times I wanted to give up on life. My family was my rock, they showed me love and forgave me without me even asking for forgiveness.

I am grateful for my parents, grandma, uncle, aunt and sisters who have listened to me worry about upcoming events but always believed I would succeed.

I am so grateful for my current employment. I work for people who appreciate me and I am able to learn new skills everyday. with these skills I will be able to apply myself further in the future. I am grateful for my co-workers who respect me.

I am so grateful for my friends who have supported me through the hard times and have never looked down upon me but knew I would get back up on my feet.

Elaine is Grateful for:

I am so grateful for the inspired thoughts and feelings that enable me to see the wonder and joy all around and in me...those special miracles of each moment that inspire all the more gratitude.

I'm also grateful for our jobs.

I'm thankful that a great relationship is coming to my life.

"Gratitude is the heart's memory" ~Jean Baptiste Massieu

Deacon is Grateful for:

I am so grateful for "The Secret" because I can show others how to unlock the mysteries of their spiritually and give hope to others as we play a valuable part in creating our destiny. The Secret for me have shed a brighter light on The Book Matthew 7:7-11

"Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you: 8 For every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened. 9 Or what man is there of you, whom if his son ask bread, will he give him a stone? 10 Or if he ask a fish, will he give him a serpent? 11 If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your Father which is in heaven give good things to them that ask him?" (KJV)

God has given to us all we need to show one to another the power of love, wisdom, freedom and all we need to do is learn how to use these gifts. I can go on and on with my daily discovery of the law of attraction but I think I will stop here.

Connie is Grateful for:

Julina is Grateful for:

Where do I start.... there is so much I am grateful for. Of course first and foremost is my beautiful family, they are my everything. I know we all are grateful for our families and to me mine is so special because I could not take for granted having babies. It was difficult for us to start a family but through the law attraction everything can happen. I am also grateful for my beautiful mother because through her teachings and strong faith I learned to live by the law of attraction. She just discovered The Secret about a year before she passed away, but ever since we were little kids she lived her life that way, what an amazing woman! So in turn must of what I have achieved in live has been by learning how to apply the secret as well as being close to god, what a wonderful combination it has been for me. I have a wonderful husband, adopted a gorgeous baby boy and then got pregnant and have a little princess. What else can I ask for? I am grateful for our health, home, jobs and people around us. I am also grateful for my siblings specially my wonderful sister who I have a special bond with. Thanks so much for all the mistakes I have made as well as the difficult times, for they have jus made me a stronger and better person. Thanks for the gift of life and my faith to God. Anyway, there is so much more I am grateful for but this is just the beginning to a wonderful life ahead.....

Alison is Grateful for:

I am grateful for the wonderful people who have come into my life and the lessons they have brought me...
I am grateful for the wonderful country in which I reside we are truly blessed with warm summer nights and cool winter breezes...
I am grateful my sight for without it I would not be able to embrace the beauty all around me...
And finally I am grateful to the Secret for without I would not realise just how much I have to be grateful for...*

Every morning, while I drive to work, I thank God for all the things I am grateful for. And here is my normal gratitude list.

I am grateful for everything in my life,

I am grateful for each nights sleep I get in my very comfortable bed,

I am grateful for waking each morning,

I am grateful for my beautiful home, and having the choice to live where and how my heart desires.

I am grateful for the beauty my eyes are privileged to see each day. The beauty of the sun, rain, moon, stars, night, day, trees, flowers, sea and basically everything I can set my eyes on.

I am grateful for my family, friends and all the people I meet each day,

I am grateful for having a job that I enjoy. Although many times overworked. I am grateful to have a job. I am grateful for the flexibility which allows me to get work-life balance, so that I can get time to exercise and giving me the time out I need for "me time".

I am grateful that I can drive to work, and even more grateful for having a carpark at work.

I am grateful for my health, even with all my aches and pains, I am grateful to be alive so that I can feel them.

I am grateful for God for this beautiful world we live in.

I am grateful for my Angels who protect me. They listen to my wishes, dreams and make them come true for me.

I am grateful for my guides who answer all my questions. All I have to do is listen to them.

I am grateful for the freedom of choice.

I am grateful to have found out the "Secret" as I truly believe we can have it all. All you need to do is believe and be....

Well, these are only some of the things I am grateful for. I could go on forever as there are so many things in my life that I am grateful for.
